River Spirit Casino Resort announces a $17.5 million renovation to build Gridiron, the largest sports viewing experience in Oklahoma

The construction renovation and design includes an upscale sports bar, Top Golf Swing Suites, a private watch party space, and VIP Lounge within the 14,000-square-foot space of the former Visions Buffet

TULSA, Okla. – Leaders at River Spirit Casino Resort announced today a $17.5 million capital investment to transform 14,000 square feet of existing space into the all-new Gridiron, a deluxe sports bar and lounge set to redefine sports viewing. The renovation replaces the space formerly known as the Visions Buffet. Gridiron is expected to open in July 2024 in time for the Paris 2024 Summer Olympics.

Gridiron promises the largest sports viewing experience in the State of Oklahoma and features a massive 53-foot by 14-foot high-resolution LED video wall, 54 televisions and 104 speakers for a game watching and audio experience like none other.

When complete, Gridiron will seat 157 guests including an upscale, 27-seat center bar featuring 24 mounted 70-inch televisions and 30 additional 70-inch televisions located throughout the dining and private booth seating areas. Guests will enjoy a new, robust menu with sports bar favorites, but also signature dishes prepared by Gridiron's new state-of-the-art kitchen.

Additional hospitality and entertainment elements in Gridiron include a private watch party and meeting space called "The Locker Room" with a 21-foot by 12-foot LED video wall and a luxury VIP Lounge exclusively for River Spirit Casino Resort's top-tier-level Players Club Members. Additionally, the sports bar will offer two "Top Golf Swing Suites" for an immersive digital sports experience, featuring simulated golf and other sports.

"River Spirit Casino Resort is undoubtedly Tulsa's premier entertainment destination," Muscogee Nation Principal Chief David Hill said. "The addition of Gridiron Sports Bar will continue our commitment to bring exceptional entertainment experiences to our visitors, while elevating the guest experience to one that you cannot find anywhere else."

I-5 Design Build, based in Lacey, Wash., is the lead architectural design firm with a proven track record of successful projects at more than 125 entertainment properties. In addition to designing the project, I-5 Design Build's expertise includes its fabrication and manufacturing facility where the firm pre-constructs custom architecture features, unique lighting fixtures, and tailor-made hospitality structures and guest seating. These custom components will be shipped to River Spirit Casino Resort where I-5's daily, onsite management and project leaders will oversee the installation to bring the first-class design to reality on time and on budget.

"We are thrilled to unveil Gridiron as the largest sports viewing experience in Oklahoma. Gridiron represents a significant capital investment and creates a new standard in dynamic spaces where sports enthusiasts can revel in the excitement of their favorite teams while enjoying top-notch amenities and hospitality services," said Pat Crofts, CEO of Muscogee Nation Gaming Enterprises. "I-5 Design Build has successfully completed multiple remodel, refurbishment and expansion projects for the Muscogee Creek Nation Casinos. All have been completed with the highest of quality, on time and on budget with minimal disruption to existing operations."

As part of this transformation, the existing Scoreboard Sports Bar will be repurposed for a new guest amenity in the future. Gridiron is currently under construction, with demolition of the existing area already in progress.

Key features of the $17.5 million renovation include:

Gridiron Sports Bar and Lounge
